NUMBER 24

Mr. Conkling has not yet succeeded in demoralizing President Garfield's backbone.

There seems to be no hope that the deadlock in the Senate will end in any reasonable time. The length of the session depends upon which party has the most check.

They tax wedding rings in England at the rate of seventeen shillings an ounce, or a little over four dollars. This tax last year brought in a revenue of over $100,000. England is the only country in the world that taxes wedding rings.

Our municipal election was a 8 by 7 arrangement, the Republican candidate for mayor being elected by seven majority, and the Republican candidate for city clerk, by eight majority. These are small, but they are very consoling, all the same.

No one, not even a Republican, has the courage to stand up and defend the late apportionment bill. The State Journal thinks it could have been vetoed on other grounds than the omission of a town. It might have been vetoed on the principle that it was too low a piece of party work to become a law.

When a man opens his heart and his purse to give to charities, he instantly becomes a victim to the overpowering greed of others. When Colonel Thomas A. Scott gave the last $50,000 to educational institutions, he should have been allowed to rest for a while; but since then he has been overwhelmed with letters from all parts of the country begging for more money.

The municipal election in Cincinnati resulted in a victory for the Republicans all round except for mayor. The present incumbent, Mr. Jacobs, is a Republican, but is very like Carter Harrison, of Chicago, catering to the low and disreputable classes in the city. He was renominated, but many of the Republicans refused to support him, which resulted in the election of Mr. Means, a Democrat, but a very good man for all that. Whenever the Republicans put up a mean man for office, he should be spotted at once. The only way to make the party strong, and to retain the confidence of the people, is to put up the best man for office.

Forepaugh offered $10,000 for the handsomest woman in America. This was an advertising dodge. After receiving thousands of photographs, and the public being hoodwinked for several weeks, it now transpires that the "prettiest woman in America," and the one who will receive the prize is and has been a member of his show for some time. Of course she will not receive the prize, but will remain with the company at the usual salary. Forepaugh can humbug the public as well as Barnum, and in this case has succeeded very well. He will now take his immense collection of photos, which cost him nothing, and with them add another feature to his show.

It costs $45 to cremate a body at Washington, Pennsylvania. When Dr. Le Moine was living he charged only $10, and built his furnace for the purpose of lessening the cost of disposing of the bodies of the poor; but the trustees have raised the price to $45.00. The United States cremation society will soon be organized in the East, when a little competition will be put in the cremation business. Since Dr. De Moine's crematory was established, twelve human bodies have been incinerated in that furnace, and four of them the present year. Of these bodies, five were from New York, four from Pennsylvania, one from Cincinnati, one from Indiana, and one from Massachusetts.

MR. CARPENTER'S FUNERAL.
After a shameful delay of several weeks, the congressional committee appointed to take charge of the remains of the late Senator Carpenter and accompany them to Wisconsin, have decided to leave Washington on Friday morning, April 8th, over the Pennsylvania and Fort Wayne railway. On Tuesday, Governor Smith received the following telegram from Mr. Cameron:

WASHINGTON, April 5, 1881.
Gov. Wm. E. Smith:
The congressional committee and Mrs. Carpenter and family will leave here by the Pennsylvania route with Senator Carpenter's remains next Friday morning; will be due at Chicago Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

(Signed) ANGUS CAMERON.
There were some doubts as to the time when the funeral would take place in Milwaukee, and in answer to a dispatch of inquiry, Governor Smith received the following from Mr. Edward Sanderson, chairman of the local committee of arrangement:

MILWAUKEE, April 5.
Gov. Wm. E. Smith:
Funeral will be Saturday afternoon probably at two o'clock.

EDW. SANDERSON.
If the funeral train be due at Chicago at ten o'clock on Saturday, it is not likely that the funeral services can be held in Milwaukee at two o'clock on Saturday. But they will be held at some hour in the afternoon of that day. The committee of Congress appointed to accompany the remains to Wisconsin are as follows: On the part of the Senate—Angus Cameron, of Wisconsin; Roscoe Conkling, of New York; John A. Logan, of Illinois; and John P. Jones, of Nevada. On the part of the House of Representatives—E. G. Lapham, of New York; George M. Robeson, of New Jersey; H. E. Page, of California; J. G. Carlisle, of Kentucky; J. R. Tucker, of Virginia; C. G. Williams and G. C. Hazelton, of Wisconsin.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

The Returns from Various Cities in the State.

RACINE. April 5.—Racine city elects Packard, Democrat, mayor, by 202 majority; Snyder, Democrat, justice of the peace by 150 majority, and the Republicans elect the balance of their ticket. The city council will be a tie.

MADISON. April 5.—The Democrats made a clean sweep at the municipal election to-day, electing James Conkling Mayor, and Andrew Danbier treasurer, and carrying all the aldermen and supervisors, and electing A. S. Sanborn a county judge. Both parties supported Justices Cole and Cassaday.

OSHKOSH. April 5.—In the city election to-day James Stingham, Democrat, was elected mayor; R. G. Harvey, Democrat, city clerk, over Josiah Powers, who has held the office sixteen years; F. B. Morgan, Democrat, treasurer; C. R. Nevitt, Republican, justice; George Gary, Republican, county judge. The council stands eleven Republicans and seven Democrats.

LA CROSSE. April 5.—Probably at no time in the history of this city has there been such intense excitement over a municipal election as the one which occurred to-day. Some of the leading men in the Republican and Democratic parties signed a call for our head brewer, Charles Michel, for mayor. He was endorsed by the Democrats. The people called a convention and nominated H. E. Stanley, and he was endorsed by the Republican convention. The result is that the Democratic city of La Crosse has Mr. Stanley mayor by nearly 20 majority. The balance of the ticket is in doubt.

BELOIT. April 5.—Two tickets were in the field to-day in our municipal election—a citizens' ticket, favoring a reduced number of liquor licenses and higher license fees, and a Republican Union ticket, which represented the broad-gauge license policy. The latter was successful, electing J. H. Reigart for mayor by 185 plurality, and Simon Smith treasurer by 143 plurality. The aldermen and supervisors who served last year were re-elected in all wards, except that C. Newburgh, a new man, was elected fourth ward alderman, receiving 42 majority. For chief justice of the Wisconsin supreme court Osamus Cole received 63 votes for the short term and 607 votes for the long term. For associate justice J. B. Cassaday received 609 votes. For probate judge Amos P. Pritchard received 607 votes. For judge of the municipal court, Patten received 309 votes, and Brooks, 236.

MILWAUKEE. April 5.—The judicial and municipal elections to-day have been the quietest ever known, and the vote polled has been about two-thirds as large as that of the last election. The general returns show small Democratic gains in several of the wards. Judges Cole and Cassaday, having no opposition, received the full vote of the State, and will both be returned to the supreme bench. Judge Mann, Democrat, was re-elected county judge over G. W. Hazelton, Republican, by 1,202 majority. The returns from the eight towns in the county will increase Mann's majority. C. A. Hamilton, the Republican nominee, lead D. W. Small, Democrat, for Circuit Judge in the city, by 1,632 majority. The returns from Waukesha and Milwaukee counties will reduce Hamilton's majority to about 1,200. Hazelton run 303 behind the ticket.

FOND DU LAC. April 5.—This has gone Democratic, S. S. Bowers being elected mayor and C. J. Pierson treasurer. George Perkins, Democrat, is probably elected county judge.

STATE AT LARGE. April 5.—Special dispatches to the Sentinel from all the counties in the State show that the election has been very quiet, the vote small, and no unusual disturbances. County judges were elected in every county, and a bare majority are Republican. I. C. Sloan and Col. Hamilton were the only circuit judges voted for, and both were elected. Interviews with Republicans to night reveal the fact that the most of them believe that United States District Attorney Hazelton, who was a candidate for county judge in this county, was defeated owing to the idea that seemed to prevail that he was put up and supported by the postoffice ring.

CHICAGO ELECTION.

The Democrats Gain the Field by a Handsome Majority.

CHICAGO, April 6.—The election of officers resulted yesterday in the choice of the entire Democratic ticket by Majorities of 7,000 for Mayor and rather less on other candidates. Mr. Harrison is chosen mayor, Rudolph Brand city treasurer, J. S. Grinnell city attorney, and Pat Howard city clerk. This result, which substitutes a Democratic majority of 6,000 for the Republican majority given Garfield last year of 4,000, is due almost exclusively to the apathy of the Republican voters. The day was a splendid one, and the ticket a good one, and there was no excuse for not turning out. But the voters failed to appear, and the heavy Republican American wards, such as the Second, Third, Fourth, Eleventh and Twelfth, were noticeable for the way in which they failed to come up to the rack. There was much defection among the North side Germans, which was not counterbalanced by the expected gains in the Irish wards. There was also some repeating, especially in the First ward, and the powerful aid of the gamblers was thrown for the Democratic ticket in the South division. But the principal cause of defeat was the failure of the Republicans to turn out.

CONKLING.

He Has Gone to New York and Will Not Return Until After Carpenter's Funeral.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 5.—Senator Conkling has gone to New York, and will not again be in Washington until the congressional committee which accompanies the remains of Senator Carpenter to the West, of which he is a member, returns, towards the latter part of next week. Of course there will be no attempt to bring up the New York nominations in his absence, nor is there any indication that the present deadlock will be broken. Senator Conkling is said to be endeavoring to make every possible combination to secure the defeat of Robertson. A Democratic Senator from the South said to-day that it had been represented to him that he could secure Conkling's influence to enable him (the Democratic Senator) to control the Federal patronage in the State if he would assist in securing the defeat of Robertson. There is some talk here among the Republicans about a change in the New York plans of the administration. It is urged that the New York collectorship cannot be given to any New York politician of either faction without causing ill-feeling and a break in the harmony of the party; that the true way would be to give this important place to some one from another State, entirely unconnected with New York politics, and having either no relations with either faction or good relations with both. The names of Glenn W. Scofield, of Pennsylvania, now register of the treasury; Governor Foster, of Ohio; J. C. New, of Indiana; Channey L. Filley, of Missouri; and some others of less note, are mentioned as the kind of men who could be usefully called to such a post.

BOYCOTT IN AMERICA.

Arrival of That Gentleman in America, Where He is Immediately Interviewed.

NEW YORK, April 5.—Charles C. Boycott, who was driven from his home November 26, 1880, by the Land Leaguers, on account of his connection with the Irish troubles at Lough Mask, Ulster county, Ireland, arrived here to-day by the steamship Italy, of the National Line. He registered as Charles Cunningham, omitting his surname in order to avoid identification. He was accompanied by his wife, the Rev. Edmund Boycott, his brother; St. John Boycott, his nephew; and A. Weeks, a friend. His companions were registered as Mrs. Cunningham, A. Edmunds, and A. St. John. The members of the party succeeded in concealing their identity on the steamer, but were recognized as soon as they landed here. Captain Boycott, as he is familiarly known, is about 49 years old and five feet eight inches in height. His head is slightly bald, and his hair and whiskers, which were once of a brown color, are almost gray.

EARTHQUAKES.

LONDON, April 5.—An earthquake occurred in the Island of Zante yesterday. The vibrations continue to-day and are prolonged, but no damage has yet been done.

Zante is one of the Ionian islands in the Mediterranean, and is about twenty-four miles long and twelve miles broad. The east coast has a harbor, within which is situated the town of Zante. The greater part of the interior of the island consists of an extensive fertile plain, which has the appearance of being a continuous vineyard. Earthquakes are frequent on the island. The most destructive on record took place on the night of Dec. 23, 1879, when several houses were destroyed and many persons were killed. The island has a population of about 40,000.

THEY EXPECT WAR.

Oconomowoc, April 5.—It is believed that the new railroad being built between Madison and Milwaukee will have trouble when they come to locate a depot near the present villages of Dousman and Waterville. Each place wants the depot, and both cannot have it. Both have threatened that, in case the depot is not located where they desire, they will use force against the contractors. It is said the railroad men have gone away and will return armed and prepared for any emergency.

A Modern Poet.

What is a modern poet's fate, to write his thoughts upon a slate,
The critic splits on it as done, gives it a wipe and all is gone,

SHOT BY A GAMBLER.

LA CROSSE, Wis., April 5.—This morning about 7 o'clock Edward Pratt, a notorious character of this place, was shot by William Lee a gambler, the ball entering the cheek and lodging in the back of the neck. Pratt will die. He has been a citizen of this place twenty-three years and has been engaged in all kinds of business of vice, and has been twice shot before. Lee was promptly arrested and lodged in jail. The difficulty which caused the trouble grew out of a game of cards. Both men were considerably intoxicated at the time of the shooting, having been up all night.

THE BALLOTS!

THE REPUBLICANS ELECT A MAYOR AND SIXTEEN OTHER CANDIDATES, AND KEEP CONTROL OF THE COUNCIL.

Only Seven Democratic Candidates Elected Throughout the City.

The Judicial Ticket Goes Thro' with a Boom, and Patten is Among the Victors.

A Good Deal of Quiet Scratching which Makes the Count Perplexing and Tedious.

Interesting Comparisons Between the Results and Those of Former Years.

Reports from Several Towns in the County.

Facts and Figures.

The work of the ballot is ended, and the result is now known. Yesterday's election passed off quietly, there being so little rowdiness or undue excitement shown, that away from the immediate vicinity of the polling places there was little to indicate that the fate of men, if not of nations, was being decided by the hundreds of little bits of paper, so quietly dropped into the walnut boxes. The vote was a lighter one than has been cast since 1875, but it was a perplexing, bothersome kind of a vote, for there was much scratching done upon both sides. Individual preferences, petty spite, little localisms, caused the pencils to be kept busy, besides the numerous split tickets in printed form. This made the count very perplexing, and kept so many of the judges and clerks busy till a late hour, that although the city boxes were closed at 5 o'clock, and the judicial boxes at sundown, the actual result of the day's work, in its details, was not known until after 10 o'clock.

THE JUDICIAL TICKET

was for the most part voted with no opposition or discussion, except the nomination for Municipal Judge, for which position L. F. Patten was regularly nominated, but was opposed by Frank Brooks, who came forward as an independent candidate, hoping against hope to draw at least his Democratic friends to his help, but in this attempt he failed so signally although there was some stir caused by his efforts. The result of the vote on the judicial ticket is as follows, by wards:

Chief Justice of Supreme Court,

Oramus Cole, 1st 2d 3d 4th 5th Maj.

Associate Justice Supreme Court,

J. B. Cassaday, 288 346 292 367 162-1,533

County Judge,

A. P. Prichard, 392 347 291 367 163-1,560

Municipal Judge,

L. F. Patten, 213 259 198 193 98-876

Frank Brooks, 199 89 94 105 68
